BREAK OF A DYKE.

One Hundred and Fifteen Lives Were Lost.

FIFTY BODIES ARE RECOVERED.

It Is Believed That the Death List Will Be Greatly in Excess of the Reported Number—Thousands of Tons of Water Sweeps Everything in Its Sway—Full Extent of the Disaster.

EPINAL, France, April 29.—The list of the fatalities caused by the breaking Saturday morning of the great Bouzey dyke in the Epinal district of the Vosges increases every hour. One hundred and fifteen deaths have already been reported, but only 50 bodies have been recovered. It is believed that the death list will be greatly in excess of the figures above given when all the districts are heard from. It is supposed that many of the dead were swept into isolated places where it will be a long time before the bodies are found.

The whole region over which the thousands of tons of water swept in a resistless torrent is strewn with every sort of wreckage, and the whole country presents a most desolate appearance. In many places the early crops were swept clean out of the ground and the losses thus incurred will be very heavy.

Six brigades of gendarmes have arrived, and they have been detailed to act as guards. Every attempt is being made to reorganize the district, but this is rendered difficult by the water.

The Avere, a small narrow stream, is now in some places a mile and a half wide. The railway in the vicinity of the Darnieulles station is torn up. The rails and ties were swept away and the embankments destroyed. Nearly every bridge on the line of the flood was either destroyed or so badly damaged they will have to be rebuilt.

The construction of the dyke, or dam, was commenced in 1879 and finished in 1884. In 1889 it was greatly strengthened. It was of heavy masonry 550 yards long, 36 feet high and 66 feet thick at the base. The masonry was carried into the ground to a depth of 30 feet below the level of the valley, into which the reservoir discharged its water. It was built against a vertical face of solid rock, having a maximum height of eight feet. The base rested on a sandstone of natural formation.

The massive construction of the dam was considered to be a guarantee that it would hold back any weight of water that could be brought against it. Until the strengthening of the work in 1889 it was not subjected to the full pressure of the water which it was built to hold.

The distress among the homestead dwellers of the valley is very great and many cases there appear to be mentally benumbed by the calamity that has befallen them.

The government is fully awake to the disaster and is doing everything possible to relieve their suffering. M. Dupuy, minister of public works, M. Leigues, minister of the interior, are now on their way here to assume charge of the relief work. Three thousand francs have already been received for relief purposes and the ministers will bring 5,000 more from the funds of their departments, and 1,000 francs contributed by President Faure. Mme. Heine has sent 20,000 francs which will be applied to relieving the sufferers.

The prefect of the department has visited all the districts affected by the disaster. He has organized the employees on the public roads, and aided by the military, will, as soon as possible, restore communication. These employees and the soldiers will also search for the dead and immediately bury all the dead animals they may find. All the municipal authorities are working ceaselessly in distributing relief and seeking to bring order out of the chaos prevailing. Over 50,000 persons from the nearby towns and the surrounding country visited the scene of the disaster yesterday.

At a o'clock yesterday afternoon the burial of 15 of the victims took place at Domevere, one of the villages that suffered the worst from the inundation. Two thousand persons attended the services, which were held while the graves were being dug. There were many heartrending scenes while the bodies were being consigned to the earth.

CAMPO'S CAMPAIGN.

How the Spanish General Expects to Suppress the Rebellion in Cuba.

MADRID, April 29.—Marshal De Campos, captain general of Cuba, has drawn up a plan of campaign against the rebels. He will go to Santiago de Cuba in three or four days from Havana.

Bands of rebels, under command of Capote Miro and Carbellio, pillaged a small town on Wednesday last. They were pursued by government troops, and in a skirmish that ensued, they killed one and wounded three of the insurgents.

Marshal De Campos has telegraphed to the government to send to Cuba additional surgeons and a commissariat corps.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The United States cruisers Columbia, commanded by Captain Sumner, and New York, commanded by Captain Evans, which were detached from Admiral Meade's squadron at Key West and ordered to proceed to the navyyard at Brooklyn to prepare for participation in the ceremonies at the opening of the North Sea and Baltic canal in June, arrived here yesterday. Both of the vessels anchored temporarily in the North river.

A CORRESPONDENT'S VIEWS.

Arrival of Soldiers at Baracoa Enliven That Dull Little Town.

GIBARA, Cuba., April 29.—Your correspondent has just arrived from the little town of Baracoa, which awoke on April 1, to find that it had gained prominence by the landing of Maceo and his party.

The town has again subsided into its usual tranquility, excepting that 150 government soldiers arrived from Guantanamo on April 3, and these were followed a few days later by 200 more, who came overland from Santiago.

The town, heretofore without scarcely any soldiers, now presents quite a military appearance and is strictly under martial law, but there has been no conflict of any kind within its limits. The soldiers are guarding the different fortifications and entrances of the town both day and night. Besides these regulars, there is a volunteer force of 300 men that patrol the streets at night and hence any efforts on the part of the insurgents to enter or capture the town would be almost an impossibility, unless perhaps they were in very large numbers, and as far as this immediate vicinity is concerned, the insurgents are very few.

The party that landed on the 1st have doubtless found it somewhat unpleasant around here and have evidently sought more congenial quarters. The colonel commanding the forces scoured the country for miles around Baracoa, but failed to detect any evidence of their presence. The few that left the town on the 1st to join those that landed, are mostly mulattoes. It is said they are not many miles from Baracoa and are desirous of returning to their homes, but fear imprisonment.

Last night official telegrams were received from Guantanamo stating that the regulars and insurgents had exchanged a few shots which resulted in the killing of Flor Crombet and another insurgent, with the capture of seven rebels and all their firearms.

The dispatches further state that General Maceo, with his few followers, are said to be surrounded and will either be killed or will starve to death.

It is rumored that Maceo is very much dissatisfied with the condition of affairs on the island and says that he has been deceived in coming to Cuba, as he expected to find the entire island up in arms, but on his arrival he finds things entirely different. The two English sailors captured from off the schooner Honora, which landed Maceo on the 1st, were sent to Santiago two days ago on the man-of-war, Conde de Venedito.

The very latest news states that all Maceo's force except two have been captured.

WALLER HAS A FRIEND.

Ex-Congressman Langston Will Plead the Ex-Consul's Case.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Ex-Congressman John M. Langston, the attorney of ex-Consul Waller, who is imprisoned at St. Pierre by the French, is determined to push the case with all the power he possesses.

"In the first place," said he, "we propose to maintain the concessions obtained by Mr. Waller in Madagascar. The whole purpose of the prosecution and persecution of Waller by the French government was to despoil him of the concessions he procured. The French government realizes that the concessions are of immense value. Then we intend to force the French government to pay to Waller an indemnity commensurate with the prosecution he has undergone. He was given a mock trial, was threatened and finally conveyed in irons to France, where he now lies in prison awaiting a civil trial."

Mr. Langston said the amount of indemnity to be asked would be determined after he had communicated with Waller. Mr. Langston is entirely satisfied with the course of the state department which he said had called for a thorough investigation of and report on the case by Minister Eustis at Paris and the consul at Tamatava, Madagascar. As soon as these are received, if they are shown to bear out Mr. Waller's representations, Mr. Langston expects the administration to take prompt action looking to the release of the prisoner and to demand from France a proper money indemnity.

Tragedy Recalled.

PERRY, O. T., April 29.—Officers have arrested James Dupont, alias Jake Black, in Osage nation for a murder committed near Lexington, Ky., in 1890. Black was courting Donna Lang's daughter and went home with her one night from church. Lang objected to Black's attentions to his daughter, and met the couple at the gate. A quarrel took place and Black shot and killed Lang. He escaped and came west, settling in Osage county, where he married and has become quite wealthy. A large reward was offered for his arrest, and yesterday it was accomplished.

Death Preferred to Oscar Wilde.

CHEYENNE, WY., April 29.—Corporal Henry of D company, Eighth infantry, stationed at Fort Russell, committed suicide by shooting himself with an army rifle. He placed the gun on the ground and pulled the trigger with the ramrod, the ball entering the lower part of his jaw and coming through at the top of his head, killing him instantly. Henry's comrades accused him of being the Cheyenne Oscar Wilde, the accusation preyed upon his mind until he decided to end his existence.

Miners Want an Advance.

CANTON, O., April 29.—The miners of the Massillon district have been ordered out on May 1, and await orders from the convention in Columbus on May 8. The arbitration scale of 60 cents expires May 1, and the miners who accepted under protest want an advance.

COALING STATIONS.

New Ones Needed in the Caribbean Sea.

ADMIRAL MEADE'S CRUISE.

It Has Developed the Fact That Some Steps Are Necessary to Protect Our Navy—Secretary Herbert Giving the Subject Serious Consideration—Sites Being Looked For.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The recent experience of Admiral Meade in his cruise with a squadron through the waters of the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean sea, has served to again attract the attention of the officials of the navy department to the necessity of acquiring of at least one or two coaling stations in those waters for the use of the navy. Although the cruise lasted only a few weeks, the difficulty of procuring a sufficient supply of coal at different points and at reasonable prices, has strikingly indicated the trouble that may be expected when it shall be necessary to maintain for long periods of time, or perhaps permanently a number of cruising gunboats in those waters, such a contingency is being prepared for by the construction of a number of boats calculated for just such service.

The sources of coal in that section are at present largely in British possessions. The price is always high in some ports, but it is very much higher in others, being known to reach $15 per ton at Colon at times. Now that the navy has rid itself almost entirely of sail power and the ships rely altogether on steam the amount of money expended in coal is assuming formidable proportions, and the naval officials are using all of their ingenuity to keep down this expense without injury to the service. Perhaps for this reason a number of officers who had not regarded favorably the proposition to establish coaling stations outside of the United States are now becoming convinced that such a plan would be decidedly in the interest of economy.

In the case of Admiral Meade's cruise, to prevent the laying of extortionate charges for coal, the navy adopted the plan of contracting with an American firm to deliver coal alongside the vessels of the squadron at some of the ports. This plan worked well within certain limits, and a considerable economy was effected. It requires the arrangement of the government of the vessels of the squadron with great exactness a long time in advance, and this would be quite impossible in times of trouble just when the ships are required to be well supplied with coal so as to be able to make sudden movements.

There is also reason to believe that while no objection has yet been made to this experiment, the nations owning the ports where the coal is transferred to our cruisers will not permit the practice to continue without the collection of heavy duties on the coal and up to this time no thoroughly satisfactory method has been found by which the coal can be trans-shipped on the open sea. But aside from these purely economical reasons for the establishment of coaling stations a much stronger one is found in the fact that in time of war under the neutrality laws, our ships would be excluded from the privilege of coaling in foreign ports and would thus be absolutely prevented from hostile operations if they did not fall easy victims to an enemy better equipped with bases of coal supply. It is said by naval officers that the common belief that these coaling stations would be very expensive to acquire and would require to be strongly fortified to defend them, also at great expense, is without real foundation.

Some of the officers who have been giving much attention on the subject are confident that the United States could readily arrange for the acquisition of coaling stations from almost any of the countries facing the Gulf of Mexico or the Caribbean sea at a nominal price. Nothing in the way of equipment is required save a landing wharf, and the services of one man to watch the place would suffice. In case of war, if the station was near enough to the scene of action to be necessary, it could be protected by the very ships that would be required to use the coal. If it was distant from the scene and not necessary to the service at that time it could be left to take its chances, for the enemy would scarcely find it profitable to send ships to capture a coal pile which could be readily replenished at any convenient time. It is believed that Secretary Herbert is giving this subject attention and when congress meets again he may recommend to that body that this government be clothed with the necessary power to acquire suitable sites for coaling stations.

ACCIDENT ON A STEAMER.

Ensign George M. Allison May Lose His Life as a Result.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—There was an accident on board the cruiser Olympia that may cost Ensign George M. Allison his life, as it has already cost him his right leg. The cruiser was coming to anchor, when the chain became unshackled and ran out swiftly, the chain kinked and the light of it struck him on the right leg, shattering and mangleing it so it hung by only a few shreds of muscle and flesh. The surgeon on board amputated the limb above the knee. It is not known whether the wound is fatal.

Ensign Allison is from North Carolina, was appointed to the naval academy in 1888, and is 28th in rank. Lieutenant Commander E. W. Sturdy, executive officer of the ship, was interviewed yesterday regarding the stories afloat about the deserts from the vessels as to ill-treatment. He emphatically denied the statement. He said the trouble arose because the crew insisted on shore food instead of the regulations allowed. He stated that there were but 15 desertions from the vessel in South California ports.

JUMPED FROM A TRAIN.

How Julia McCabe Ended Her Own Existence.

TIFFIN, O., April 29.—Julia McCabe, a passenger on the eastbound Baltimore and Ohio express, due here at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, committed suicide by jumping from the train and striking on her head. The affair occurred two miles west of this city, but the woman was not missed until the train had reached Chicago Junction. The conductor had noticed the peculiar actions of the passenger, and supposing that something had happened to her, telegraphed here to ascertain if she had been seen. The body was picked up by a freight train which followed the express and brought her.

In the woman's pocket were something over $100 and a note written on a blank check. In the note she requested that part of the money be used in payment for 20 masses to be said for the repose of her soul, and the remainder sent to her mother. She asserted also that as God was her witness, she was not guilty of the crime she had committed. Her baggage was checked to Wheeling, and it is supposed she was bound for that place. The only information as to where she came from was a letter dated Helena, Mon., and addressed to Mrs. Robert Colborn, White Sulphur Springs, Mon., in which the writer complains of ill-health.

The dead woman was about 30 years of age and married. She had dark brown hair and eyes and was about 5 feet 5 inches in height and rather stout. A description of the body has been sent to Clement McCabe of Wheeling, W. Va., who asked for information about the suicide.

ONE MAN DROWNED.

The Little Steamer Sakie Shepard Sunk Just Outside the Maumee Bay.

TOLEDO, April 29.—Captain George Hayward and four of the crew of the little steamer Sakie Shepard, which foundered and sunk just outside of Maumee bay Saturday afternoon, arrived in Toledo safe and sound yesterday morning. They left the sinking steamer in a yawl just before she sank and safely made the Michigan shore. William Jones, the cook, and Albert Hamlin, the engineer, were left on the wreck. Hamlin was finally rescued by the tug Roy of this city, but Jones was drowned, he having jumped overboard in the excitement.

The steamer was coming across the head of Lake Erie in the trough of the sea and the strain was too much for her; she sprung a leak and filled so fast that she sank in less than an hour after the first water commenced coming into the hold.

The men who were saved report a very rough experience, having rowed seven miles in the yawl in a terrific sea that threatened to swamp their fragile craft any minute.

National Gas Explosion.

PITTSBURGH, April 29.—At Edgewood, a suburb, yesterday, the residence of Attorney A. L. Spindler was blown apart by an explosion of natural gas, which leaked into the cellar through a drain. Rebecca Spindler was probably fatally injured by falling from the second story to the cellar. Her sister Mary and Officer Selheimer were seriously but not fatally burned. The explosion was followed in quick succession by two others, which wrecked the adjoining dwelling houses of A. L. Swift, Professor D. W. Downing and T. A. Johnston. Total loss $20,000; insurance unknown.

Capturing the Enemy.

SIMLA, April 29.—Sher Afzul, who, after the murder of his nephew, the Mehtar of Chitral, usurped the throne and besieged Dr. Robertson, the British agent, in the Chitral fort, was captured Saturday, together with his brothers and 300 of his followers. They are now in prison. The Khan of Dir assisted in the capture. It is expected that more of the enemy will be captured.

Articles For a Fight.

GALVESTON, April 29.—Tommy Tracey, half brother to Dan Creedon, and Tom Cavanaugh, a Galveston fighter, have signed articles for a fight to take place in this city on May 8. Creedon is still here and will remain to train and manage Tracey for the fight.

The City Sued.

CIRCLEVILLE, O., April 29.—Gill Howard has sued the city for $3,000 for alleged false imprisonment. He was found unconscious in an alley and alleges he was locked up for drunkenness when, in point of fact, he was suffering from an epileptic fit.

Welcome Rain.

DULUTH, April 29.—A heavy rain is falling all over this section of the state. It will extinguish the forest fires, which have been starting up throughout the timber region, and by filling the small streams, enable the lumbermen to get out their logs.

Nobody to Blame.

BUTTE, Mon., April 29.—The grand jury called three weeks ago by Judge Speer of the district court to investigate the disastrous dynamite explosion of Jan. 15, by which 58 men were killed, refused to indict anyone on the ground that they were unable to locate the responsibility upon any individual. Civil suits for damages aggregating $250,000 have been brought against the two hardware companies.

NICARAGUAN AFFAIRS.

Nothing Definite From the Seat of War.

TELEGRAPH LINES PROBABLY CUT.

If the Blue Jackets Have Landed at Corinto It Has Not Been Reported at London—The Strong Measures Taken Regretted—What Effect It Will Have. Latest From the Nicaraguan Coast.

LONDON, April 29.—The following semi-official note has been issued from the foreign office:

Up to now nothing has been officially received regarding the course of events in Nicaragua. No notification has been received of the landing of blue jackets, as stated in the press dispatches.

The absence of information is believed to be due to the fact that the telegraph lines have been cut.

Up to the present time the admiralty is without information.

No anxiety is felt as to the outcome of the Earl of Kimberly's decided attitude. There is not the slightest doubt that Nicaragua will accede to the British demand. Whatever may be the extent of the pressure required to bring about this result the government will not hesitate to apply it.

The Observer says: "It is indeed probable that most Englishmen feel some regret that we have been driven to take strong measures against a remote little South American republic. The only consolation that we can discover is that we really could not help ourselves. The truth appears to be that the Nicaraguan government is thinking quite as much about what would be good for itself as what would be the best thing for Nicaragua. Now that Admiral Stephenson's forces are in command at Corinto it may be hoped that the Nicaraguan government will find itself in a position to make the concessions required by the ultimatum."

WHY THEY DELAYED.

The Effect of the Intervention of the United States.

LONDON, April 29.—The United States attempted to adjust the pending dispute between Great Britain and Nicaragua. Ambassador Bayard, acting under instructions from Washington, represented to the British foreign office that Nicaragua, if given two weeks additional time from the expiration of the three days fixed in the ultimatum, would meet Great Britain's demand for the payment of $15,000 indemnity for the expulsion of Consul Hatch.

Lord Kimberly acceded to this, and as it was presumed that the state department at Washington was acting for the Nicaragua, it was thought that the incident would be closed without further complications. But as Nicaragua refused at the last moment to acquiesce in this arrangement, the original plan of occupying Corinto was carried out. It is now believed here that Nicaragua secured the intermediation of the United States for the sole purpose of delay.

British Organizing.

NEW YORK, April 29.—A special to The World from Corinto, Nicaragua, says the town is perfectly quiet. The British are organizing their government. An officer of the cruiser Royal Arthur tells The World's correspondent that the next two days will be decided whether they occupy more territory, including Paso de Caballos, or withdraw altogether, as important telegrams are expected from England. The messenger, who takes this, carries two telegrams from Admiral Stephenson, one for the British foreign office, the other for the admiralty office.

Want Them to Pay It.

JOSE, Costa Rica., April 29.—It is learned here authoritatively that the Central American republics, Guatemala, San Salvador and Costa Rica, strongly urged Nicaragua to pay the $75,000 indemnity to Great Britain. President Yglesias even went so far as to offer to contribute one-fifth of the amount, but popular sentiment in Nicaragua was so set against England that the administration decided not to yield and the only response received by President Yglesias to his offer was a copy of Nicaragua's answer to Admiral Stephenson's ultimatum.

Country Quiet.

NEW YORK, April 29.—A special to The World from Managua, April 28, says: It is stated here in view of Nicaragua's tactics the last proposition made by United States Ambassador Bayard to the British government for a fortnight's time for Nicaragua to pay the indemnity in, will be accepted. Official reports show that the country is quiet.

Met a Horrible Death.

CANTON, O., April 29.—L. R. Tresler, a prominent citizen and wholesale coal dealer, met a horrible death in his stable at 6 o'clock yesterday evening. He went into the haymow to fill the chute, and in forcing the hay down fell and was imprisoned in the chute. His lamp broke and ignited the hay. His head and body were burned to a crisp. He leaves a wife and family.

Representative Hitt Worse.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—An unfavorable change in the condition of Representative Hitt of Illinois has taken place, and his condition is less favorable than for the past week.

Killed by a Kick.

VALPARAISO, Ind., April 29.—Ames Cornell, aged 47 years, was instantly killed Saturday by being kicked by a horse.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

MONDAY, APRIL 29, 1895.

Fair weather; warmer east wind.

THE New York "World" thinks it is doubtful if there will be any "calamity" available for the elections next fall.

WHEAT and corn have advanced largely and are still advancing in price and yet nothing has been done about silver. This is one of the facts tending to show that the so-called demonetization of silver, which, however, finds us with treble the silver money we ever had before, has nothing to do with prices, pertinently remarks an exchange.

THE industrial and commercial skies continue to grow brighter. The weekly reviews of trade by the Dun and Bradstreet agencies show that neither the rise in the speculative markets nor the steady gain in industries has ceased. The industries are gaining slowly but safely, and general conditions show improvement over the last few weeks.

"This country, by the absence of free coinage, is enabled to use about $575,000,000 in silver and silver paper, every dollar of which has a buying power of 100 cents," says the Louisville Post. "The silver monometallist is insisting on taking away one-half of this purchasing power and at the same time causing the disappearance of $525,000,000 in gold, by which only we are enabled to float this immense volume of silver at par."

THE importance of the iron market as an index of the condition of trade in general is causing a great deal of interest among business men in regard to the rapid rise in the price, says the Louisville Commercial. During the last few days iron has shown an advance of from 35 cents to $2.50 per hundred pounds, in proportion to the different grades, and this advance is looked upon by all as a sign of returning prosperity. The result of the advance has been great activity in the iron market.

THE increase of wages in all the cotton mills at Fall River is another severe blow to the McKinley calamity howlers. Returning prosperity has no regard for the feelings of false prophets, nor does it stop to consider the perplexing condition in which sundry Republican editors are placed, says the Hunterdon (N. J.) Democrat. They devote many hours to the writing of editorials showing the disastrous results of tariff reform, and before they can get them in type the wires bring word to all parts of the country that this or that concern has doubled its force and increased wages. It looks now as though Republican editors were going to have a hard summer of it, and that calamity howlers would have to find new jobs.

BIG ADVANCE IN WHEAT.

Upward Movement Only Begun, and $1 Will be Reached Before July 1 is the Prediction.

CHICAGO, April 27.—July wheat advanced 2½¢ from the closing price yesterday on the Board of Trade to-day. The market opened at 62½¢, and advance of ½¢, and by quick steps rose to 64½¢, which was the top figure of the session. The market close to 64¢ all the forenoon, and closed at noon at 64½¢.

The big advance came on rumors of a corner, exhausted supplies at interior points in Europe and America, higher prices abroad, possible complications in the settlement of the China-Japan treaty of peace, liberal purchases of wheat for export and the anxiety of the shorts to cover their sales for future delivery. Many millions of bushels changed hands, and no one wanted to sell.

Many of the best informed speculators on "Change" say that the upward tendency of prices has only begun, and that wheat will sell for $1 a bushel. It was gossip on the board to-day that the rich Chicago men who own most of the twenty-five million bushels of wheat in store also control nearly all the contract grade of the grain at the important receiving points in the country. They are credited with holding contracts from the shorts for many millions of bushels.

P. D. Armour and his friends are put at the head of this clique of wheat holders. The belief that they also control all the contract grade of wheat in the centers of speculation was strengthened to-day by a dispatch from New York, stating that William H. Wallace owned all the No. 2 wheat in the New York stores, estimated at 1,250,000 bushels.

BEYOND ALL DREAMS.

And Yet Nothing is Too Wonderful For Electricity—Remarkable Progress Made.

[Detroit Electrical Student.]

It is said that if a man thoroughly comprehended the powers and possibilities of electricity he might almost hope to become immortal. Electricity gathers, forms and crystallizes the elements of life. It also furnishes the material upon which much of our life depends. It can be used to destroy disease germs and remove injurious ingredients of all sorts.

Among its latest uses is that of cleansing or clarifying the syrup prepared for sugar-making. A certain voltage evaporates the water in the syrup and clears it better than any known chemical substance. The sugar factories are adopting it, and in due course of time this will be the approved process. Passing an electric current through a solution of salt forms caustic soda and muriatic acid.

Electricity is a more powerful agent in separating chemical elements than any now in use, and has the added advantage of not introducing a new compound into the work.

Heat from an electric furnace surpasses that obtained from coal. It is clean, manageable, and will some day be so economical that it will supersede all other means of heating.

As an illuminating agent it is successful beyond the wildest dreams of its inventors. Electricity enters into almost all of the processes of human existence. It is scarcely too much to say that our heating, lighting, transportation, chemical laboratories and food products will, within a few years, be entirely revolutionized by this new power.

A quarter of a century ago such a thing as running a machine by electricity was unknown. Now over $900,000,000 are invested in machinery of this sort. Truly the possibilities of the electric current have just begun to dawn upon us.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

SAD ACCIDENT.

Mr. E. B. Griffith Falls at the Home of Mr. I. M. Lane and is Seriously Injured.

A sad accident occurred Saturday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of Mr. I. M. Lane.

His son-in-law Mr. R. B. Griffith of Indianapolis, accompanied by Mrs. Griffith and child, had arrived on a visit.

At the hour named Mr. Griffith while standing on the veranda either stepped backwards, or lost his footing some way, and fell down the steps.

He struck on the back of his head and was unconscious for a time. Dr. Yazell was summoned and found Mr. Griffith suffering from a severe concussion of the brain. He has improved somewhat, but spent a restless night last night, and is still in a rather serious condition. The many friends of the family trust a few days will bring him around all right.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Increase of Wages.

The improvement of business which began or became noticeable simultaneously with the consummation of the agreement between the Government and the syndicate for the sale, for gold, of United States bonds, has been certain, though slow. The most assuring proofs of returning trade activity and prosperity are to be found in the increased energy of the manufacturers, who are not only running their works upon full time, but increasing their plants, and, most gratifying and convincing of all, raising wages.—Philadelphia Ledger.

A HANDSOME black team belonging to Alexander & Bro. and hitched to Means & Son's hearse, came from the cemetery to Market street Saturday without a driver, and remarkable to say without doing a particle of damage either to the hearse or the many vehicles they passed on the way. After the remains of the late Mrs. Jemima Hiatt were laid to rest, the driver Mr. Will Woodworth, left the hearse to give some instructions about filling the grave. The team started suddenly and were soon beyond his reach. The horses were not frightened. They came west on Forest avenue to Commerce, thence to Second, thence to Market, coming by way of the Second street extension. Bob Clayton got hold of the lines at Market and with the aid of the crowd succeeded in stopping the team.

SPRINGFIELD, O.

Fire at Dover.

McMillan's stable at Dover was destroyed by fire Friday night. It was the work of incendiaries. The Lee House near by was set on fire at the same time, but it was saved by the citizens turning out promptly. This is the second attempt to burn the block in four months.

EXTENSIVE alterations and improvements will soon be made to the Bee Hive to accommodate that house's large and increasing trade.

GET YOU READY

To Give the Cyclers a Cordial Reception—Arranging For the State Meet.

The Maysville Bicycle Club has issued the following circular letter:

"Sir: Knights of the Wheel and Brethren of the Kentucky Division, L. A. W.: Having been released from the bonds of the Winter King, with in whose Arctic domain we have suffered all the rigors of our icy exile that could be endured at the hands of so relentless a despot, and now rest in the fond arms and wooing embrace of gentle, loving spring, "when the spring springs, the lark larks and the bees beeswax," and all nature hails us with glad acclaim of welcome back to renewed life and freedom, it is meet and proper that we should give acknowledgment of our happy escape from so severe and protracted a thralldom, and show appreciation of the delightful conditions that now surround us. Therefore, to that end we extend to you a heartwarm invitation to attend the State meet, to be held in our city on June 14 and 15 next. We beg to assure our brethren of the wheel that we shall permit no effort to go untried to make this one of the most pleasant annual occasions that has yet occurred in our State. Ours, the "Seven-Acre City," is reputed for her generous hospitality to all who come within her gates, and be assured that the coming occasion shall prove no exception. We trust you will not fail to come and aid in swelling the host of the gallant knights a-wheel. From axle to tire, we are fraternally yours,
MAYSVILLE BICYCLE CLUB.

Speaking of the coming meeting the Cincinnati Tribune says: "It is necessary to attend a meeting of the Kentucky Division, L. A. W., to understand and appreciate what true Southern hospitality means. The Maysville boys are up and hustling to royally entertain all who attend the eleventh annual meet of the Kentucky Division, which will be held in their city on Friday and Saturday June 14 and 15."

The Tribune also says: "There is not a hill in this vicinity that will compare, in any respect, with the famous Maysville hill, on which the hill-climbing contest will be held. The surface is smooth, but the grade is very steep and is seven-eighths of a mile in length. The full-mile track of the Mason County Fair Company will be used for the track events, and there is nothing in the State that will equal it for speed and surface. The prizes offered will be many and valuable, which will cause the talent to assemble in great numbers. To miss this meet would be to miss the opportunity of a lifetime."

A handsome prize will be given to the club making the largest turnout and the finest appearance at the meeting. The members of the Kenton Wheel Club of Covington say they are going to have that medal.

The meeting will bring a big crowd to Maysville, and will be one of the events of '95 in this section. The citizens of Maysville should assist the local wheelmen in every way possible to make the meeting a big success.

A special excursion will be run from Cincinnati. The C. and O. and L. and N. railroads and the boats have all agreed to reduce the fare to one and one-third for the round trip.

Joe Grimes, the fat rider from Cincinnati, an old Maysville boy, will be here and give exhibitions each day.

The club is negotiating with one of the best trick riders in the country. Fast men will be here and the people of Maysville will have an opportunity of seeing several genuine bicycle races.

Base Ball Gossip.

Jesse Tannehill who helped the Maysville team close the season last year is a very large fish in the Virginia League pond, judging from the press accounts of the games in which he has pitched. In a recent game against Portsmouth Tanny pitched ten innings, had nine strike outs, fourteen assists, and not an opposing batsman was presented with a base on balls.

Carney Flynn is having no trouble pitching winning ball in the Virginia League, says the Enquirer. He has won every game in which he has officiated.

Cliff Groves who also played here last year has been titled "Turkey" by an admiring constituency at Richmond, Va.

The Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

Maysville Parties Win.

The law suit of Casto vs. Phister, et al., was decided last week in the Circuit Court of the United States, for the Western district of Wisconsin, in favor of the defendants. The suit involved about $115,000. Judge Thomas R. Phister, of this city, was one of the attorneys for defendants.

A CRAZY MAN'S CAPERS.

Norton E. Murray, a Virginian, Placed in Custody Here For Sale Keep r.g.

A man giving the name of N. E. Murray boarded the eastbound C. and O. train at Cincinnati Sunday morning. He had a ticket for Huntington, but wanted to leave the train at every station. His actions clearly indicated that he was badly off, mentally.

When the train reached this city he left the coach, and running out on the river bank jumped over the high stone wall, fortunately escaping without injury.

Fearing the fellow might try to drown himself or injure himself in some way, the company's agent, Mr. W. W. Wikoff, sent Mr. John Mangum after him. The latter induced the unfortunate man to come up town, and the authorities then lodged him in jail for safe keeping.

It was learned that Murray's home is at Harrisonburg, Va. A cousin of his living at Clifton Forge was notified, and wired Chief of Police Ort to hold Murray until relatives could reach Maysville.

LATEST FROM CUBA.

Spanish Troops Defeated in the Latest Engagement.

KEY WEST, April 29.—Advices received here last night by steamer from Cuba state that near Guantanamo on the 19th inst. there was a fierce battle between a band of 200 Spanish troops and the insurgents. The Spanish troops were greatly outnumbered and they were literally cut to pieces. Only four or five of them escaped to tell the tale. It is said that the insurgents gave no quarter.

Orders had been given to take no prisoners, and the insurgents butchered 200 Spanish soldiers with their machetes. Near Ramon de Las Jaquas a day or two later there was another engagement in which it is said the Spanish were roughly handled. Major Tejeriso, who commanded the Spanish troops, and several other officers were wounded and Captain Miranda killed.

There are 10 bands of insurgents in the province of Puerto Principe. Several expeditions friendly to the insurgents have landed on the island.

The Spanish government is making more rigid the censorship of the press and the telegraph. The Spanish paper La Discusion was fined a few days ago $1,000 for publishing the news of the landing of Gomez and Marti.

Marcos Garcia, leader in the last revolution, now mayor of Santo Spiritu, has tendered his resignation to join the insurgents.

It is said Flor Crombet, the Cuban general, was not killed in battle as reported, but was assassinated by Spanish troops.

Spanish Lieutenant Gallego was shot at Santiago by order of General Campos a few days ago for allowing himself to be surprised by insurgents.

General Maceo, the Cuban leader, is said to be at the head of a large force of insurgents near Santiago. It is thought in Havana that a decisive battle will be fought soon.

Cuban Massmeeting.

NEW YORK, April 29.—A massmeeting of Cubans to encourage the present war in Cuba was held in Hardman hall last night. The guest of the meeting was Senor S. M. Cespedes, son of the hero of the same name, who started the fighting in Cuba with the Spanish government in 1895. The guest of the evening made the first address in which he said the American government ought to help the Cubans now in their trouble.

FEMALE WHITE CAPS.

A Merchant Taken From His Home and Unmercifully Whipped.

PORT TAMPA, Fla., April 29.—Edward Tucker, a merchant of this place, was taken from his home Saturday night and unmercifully whipped by female White Caps. Tucker has been in the habit of going home drunk and abusing his wife. Some time ago he was warned that he must treat his wife better or he would be severely dealt with. Last night Tucker went home drunk and soon Mrs. Tucker was heard screaming.

Shortly after a number of men entered Tucker's residence and dragged him to the outskirts of the town where a number of ladies wearing white caps were waiting. Tucker was stripped to the waist and lashed to a tree. Then the ladies, each of whom was armed with a rawhide, began to whip him. Tucker's screams were heard a mile. When the women finished the man's back looked like it had been knotted. The skin had been cut in dozens of places, and blood was streaming from the cuts. Tucker promised never to abuse his wife again.

It is said several of the most prominent ladies of the place were engaged in the affair.

TRIPLE DROWNING.

Two Women and a Little Girl Meet an Untimely Death.

MARQUETTE, Mich., April 29.—Mrs. Mary Post, her daughter, Mrs. P. Finley and little Ethel Finley, were drowned in the Au Train river in Algier county some time last Friday afternoon. They were missed from home Saturday evening and a boat was also gone. The bodies of all three were found in the river yesterday.

It is believed that Mr. Post had, while walking out to Finley's house from Au Train, become tired of carrying her satchel and left it at the bridge a quarter of a mile away; that she, Mrs. Finley and the little girl, then took the boat as the easiest way to bring it in, and that the swift current drove the boat on a hidden ledge and capsized it. Mrs. Post had been housekeeper for W. L. Wetmore of this city all winter and had just returned to Au Train.

Not Seeking It.

LOS ANGELES, April 29.—Hon. Stephen M. White, after reading the dispatch from Washington, in which it was stated he was head and shoulders over all other Democrat vice presidential possibilities, said to an Associated Press reporter: "You can simply say that I am not now and will not be a candidate for the vice presidency. It is the practice to name some one every now and then for this as well as for other offices. Such passing comments are entitled to no weight and have no significance whatever."

Death of a Well Known Physician.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 29.—Dr. Fred-eric Andros, who was the first practicing physician to locate west of the Mississippi river, died in this city yesterday at the age of 92 years. Dr. Andros was a member of the legislature in Iowa in its territorial days and represented the northern part of Minnesota in the legislature of this state as early as 1854. He has been prominent in the councils of the medical fraternity for two generations and was an active Mason for over 70 years.

Rebels Repulsed.

FEZ, April 29.—A letter from the sultan has been read in the Mosque here announcing a signal victory over the rebellious Bahama tribesmen at Marakesh. After the reading of the letter the heads of 16 of the rebels were suspended from one of the gates of the city.

DR. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHLOE,

H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,

Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

Furnished by the Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company:
New tobacco sold up to $23.25 last week, and old up to $23.50. The week's sales in general were quite satisfactory, offerings not very large and the demand good, with active bidding. Prices for fine tobacco are now so high up that it seems the part of prudence to sell in low grades: the experience of the past three or four years teaches the trade that whenever the range of these goods is from 17c to 23c, there is not much more to be hoped for, even though they are scarce. No change is to be quoted in low grades: they are just as abundant as they have been, and bringing perhaps as much as can be expected under the circumstances. That part of the crop which is always the main part, and upon which the result in dollars and cents principally depends to the grower and shipper, namely, the mediums, continue in their usual run of prices, and do not often look up into the teens. However, country buyers have generally made a little money so far, sufficient at least to pay them for their time and employment, and will continue to do so, if they go on in the careful and conservative manner in which they have operated this year.

Reports from the tobacco-growing districts are to the effect that the plants are doing nicely, and if nothing happens another large crop will soon be in the ground. It is the general opinion that it will be needed for the general revival of business, of which there are many indications, the consumption regains all it has lost in the past few years of adversity, and grows as it should under natural circumstances.

WAS ONCE PROMINENT.

Death of William R. Thornell at His Home in Tacoma, Wash.

TACOMA, April 29.—William R. Thornell died yesterday, aged 39. He had been prominent in both Tacoma and Seattle society. About 12 years ago, it is alleged, Thornell was tried and convicted in Colorado under the name of Fred Hope, for embezzling funds from a railroad company by which he was employed. Influential friends secured his release when he had served but a short part of his sentence. He first came to this city and went later to Seattle and entered the employ of the Oregon Improvement company. Afterward he was assistant manager of the Lake Shore and Eastern railroad, and still later an employ of the Boston National bank.

About six years ago he married Miss Cora Taylor, a Seattle society girl, and afterward his accounts with the bank were discovered to be short. His father-in-law made up the deficiency. Three years ago he came to Tacoma as book-keeper for the contractors, Dickinson & Company. His brother is secretary of the United States Trust company in New York city.

Charged With Murder.

FORT WAYNE, April 29.—Last Wednesday night Mrs. Savanna Dugan, who deserted her husband in Ohio five years ago, died in this city. She was alone with William Newman, her lover, at the time. The coroner's inquest held yesterday developed the fact that the woman's neck was broken, and while the funeral was in progress in the afternoon Newman was placed under arrest on suspicion of being the cause of her death. The prisoner declares his innocence.

Fire in a Hospital.

WATKINS, N. Y., April 29.—About 3 o'clock Sunday morning fire broke out at the state hospital for the insane at Willard on Seneca Lake, and before the hospital fire department could get it under control it had destroyed the kitchen, laundry, bakery and tailor shop, which were in an extension back of the middle section of the main building. Luckily no one was injured, although there was considerable excitement for a time.
